

SOCIAL STORY: SEED

SEED is a dance performance which includes dancing, speaking and music.

It happens in a library.

A library is usually a quiet place where people talk quietly and read books.

Sometimes it can be noisy. It is okay to make noise in a library.

When you go to the library to see the performance, you will meet some new people.

This is...
KATIE

Katie will play the music.

You can talk to her and ask her to turn the music down.

This is Kid

This is Pinto.

Kid and Pinto will be hiding just before the performance starts.

You will see them appear when it is time to begin.

When they arrive, Pinto and Kid will come over to say hello.

They will then start their investigation of the Seed which has arrived in the library, and talk to you about its story.

During the performance you will be able to join in with Kid and Pinto, and hold some of the objects they find, like a colourful chiffon scarf, or a leaf.

It is okay to take one of these objects from Kid or Pinto.

Your grown ups can help you with these objects and dance with them with you.

The dancers will show you special places where you can watch the performance, which will be marked with mats or with tape.

Kid and Pinto will invite you to join in with them at special points during the performance.

They will ask you to join them as they go underneath a parachute.

They will ask you to join them as they walk over a bridge, like this one:

They will ask you to join them as they build a den, and then sit with you in that den to tell a story about winter.

It is okay to join in with them.

Chill Out
space

It is okay to go away from the performance at any point if you need to, and it is okay to come back again.

At the end of the performance, the dancers will say goodbye.
